

Instructor Vacancies

Roxby Training is a specialist provider of engineering training, both at customers' sites and in our dedicated training centre at Middlesbrough in the North East of England. We are part of a privately owned group of specialist engineering service and manufacturing companies with a turnover of £5m.

We are seeking instructors for instrumentation, electrical and health & safety training. The company is keen to hear from people who are interested in working on a part time basis.

Our instructors are from various locations in the UK as most of our training courses are mobile and required delivery is either in our training centre or on customer premises. Therefore, location of instructors is flexible.

Our customers are primarily in the Oil, Gas, Pharmaceutical and Food Industries. Individuals must have previous experience in some form of service based industry, ideally with instructional qualifications but not essential as full training will be given to the right individuals.

Roxby offer a competitive salary including expenses where required.

Individuals should send a CV with covering letter to Roxby Training Ltd, 2nd Floor Offshore House, Teesport Commerce Park, Dockside Road, Middlesbrough, TS6 6UZ marked for the attention of Joanne Dean.
